Jesus was told that Lazarus was very ill but did not rush to see him. By the time he arrived, Lazarus had been dead for four days. Martha, sister of Lazarus, told Jesus that if he had been there Lazarus would not have died. Jesus had them take him to the tomb and asked for the stone to be rolled away. Jesus prayed to his father, God, then in a loud voice he said “Lazarus, get up and come out.” To everyone's amazement, Lazarus appeared, still wrapped in grave cloths! (He must have looked a bit like an Egyptian mummy!)

Activity: colour in the people and tomb then cut them out.

Get another piece of paper to stick the parts of the story on. You can colour in the ground and the sky.
